MR. AND MRS. JOE HARDIN

On Silver Wedding Day

On 25th Wedding Day

Mr., Mrs. Joe Hardin Feted at Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hardin, 1736 Andree Ave., who have made their home in Torrance since their marriage in 1942, were guests of honor at a reception at their home on Dec. 17 celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Hardin is the former Ruth Beckwith, whose family came to Torrance in 1917. The couple was married on Dec. 17, 1942 in South Mills, South Carolina. Mr. Hardin was serving with the United States Navy during World War II on an ammunition ship. Mrs. Hardin, who was teaching kindergarten in Arcadia at that time, went to South Mills for the wedding. She returned to continue her teaching and at the end of the war, the couple established a Torrance home.

Mrs. Hardin teaches kindergarten at the Lomita Elementary School and her husband is a supervisor at the U.S. Naval Station at Terminal Island.

They are both members of the Torrance Eastern Star and the Taoleon Club of Long Beach. Mrs. Hardin is also with the Torrance Arts and Crafts Club. Serving as hostess for the reception was Mrs. Hardin's sister, Mrs. Fred Cook. A special guest at the party was Mrs. Hardin's 92-year-old mother, Mrs. Melvina Beckwith.

The dining table was centered by a tiered anniversary cake made by Mrs. Charles Outcalt and Mrs. Archie Peverley. Mrs. Helen Carpenter, long-time friend of Mrs. Hardin, presided at the coffee service, assisted by Mrs. Ward Pitkin. Mrs. Francis Reiser was at the punch bowl.

The guest book was attended by a niece, Mrs. Jack Allen, Michele Allen and Kristi Cooper acted as junior hostesses.

Over 200 friends and relatives from throughout the state were on hand to congratulate the couple, who also received many telegrams and long distance telephone calls.

Juniors of Court St. Catherine 1378, Catholic Daughters of America, are joining their two sister courts of the area, Court Lady of Victory and Court Madonna of the Hills, in making decorations for the annual Archdiocesan dance which will be held at the Torrance Recreation Center on Feb. 17.

High school girls and their escorts from the whole Los Angeles area will participate. Proceeds will go to the Archdiocesan Chaplain, Eather Francis Parrish, for his favorite charity.

The Juniors are also planning to make a retreat at the Manresa Retreat House in Azusa on Feb. 25.

Mrs. James Burger, philanthropy chairman, announces that the record albums will be collected at the January meeting for distribution to the residents at Villa Contenta Convalescent Home. They will be played on the new portable stereo donated by the Torrance Juniors at Christmas.

Mrs. Jerry Kreutz, Fine Arts chairman, requests members bring paintings which will be shown at the District Conference Art Exhibit, Jan. 22, at the Inglewood Clubhouse.

Mrs. Larry Smith, health chairman, will be recruiting volunteers to serve on the three Bloodmobiles which the Juniors help to staff. These Bloodmobiles will be in the Torrance area during the month of January.

Dianas Seek Teen-Age Citizen

Mrs. Philip MacBride, Youth chairman of the Redondo Beach Dianas, announced that applications are now being taken for the Miss Teen-Age Citizen Contest at Redondo Union High School. The applications must be in no later than Jan. 19.

Following selection of the Dianas Miss Teen-Age Citizen, the young lady will compete in the Marina District, and will be eligible to enter the statewide California's Federation of Women's Club, Junior Membership.

Arriving to spend New Year's here with Mrs. Hazel Ward on Beech Avenue were her two sisters, Mrs. Viola Shaw of Rye, Colo., and Mrs. Lucille Gates of Phoenix, Ariz. Mrs. Gates left Friday for her home and Mrs. Shaw is remaining for a longer visit.

B'nai B'rith Girls Will Seat Officers
